

SPONSOR A TREE

Tree-Nation, in Partnership with the United Nations Environment Program
Plant for the planet: Billion Tree Campaign

Plant for the planet: Billion Tree Campaign

In 2010, Quo Vadis has involved itself in an environmental project in partnership with Tree-Nation and UNEP (United Nation Environment Program (UNEP) called the «Billion Tree Campaign».

Buy a Habana product and plant a tree

Quo Vadis forest is based in Nigeria, in the plantation of Dosso, situated at 150 km from Niamey.

From January 1st, buy a Quo Vadis Habana and sponsor a tree in the Quo Vadis forest. By sponsoring a tree, you're involved in the fight against global warming and participate in the economic development among the poorest regions of the world.

Tree Nation

Tree-Nation is the biggest free Internet social network with the objective of planting trees in order to fight poverty, desertification, deforestation and climate change. Tree-Nation works in partnership with the United Nation Environment Program (UNEP).

